

Dear Josh and Esther:

Because Kim^{the} is up to/ears in a million things to be finished before he goes to Japan, Formosa and the Philippines in May, I have volunteered to write and inform you as to our movements. Just before you left for England you asked Kim to come to Madison sometime in April (or did you say the spring? - anyhow, it now appears that he wants me to go with him, and we have plane reservations for a plane that gets into Madison at midnight on Sunday, April 21. I'm really not dead sure of the time, since I haven't picked up the tickets yet, but when I do I'll let you know exactly. This all hinges on whether or not you want us, both, and still want Kim to come then. It seems to be the only time we can come together between now and next fall, and just about the only time Kim can come between now and summer. We would stay until a plane that leaves Madison the following Tuesday, April 23 at 3 p.m. or thereabouts, but please let us know if this is no good so we can cancel everything, including the sitter, and plan to stay home.

We keep hearing all kinds of things about you, including that someone else has been taken on at Berkeley and that you are going to Australia - it will be nice to get all of it from the horse's mouth, so to speak! Our best to you both, and expect a huge tummy when you see me!

Warm regards,

Barbie
